

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	VLVL32
	Site Name	VAALEVALLEY 32
	Date	28/09/2005 - 07:23
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-34.102630, 22.121520

Page No: 1      SiteAutoID: 34076

BroadAgeCategory: ESA

Site Category: Artefacts

SiteComments:

This is a small cluster of mostly cobbles and calcrete blocks and nodules, but also includes a few stone artefacts, one of which is ESA in origin. This cluster is at a water trough on the edge of a cleared field and is probably associated with clearing the field for plowing and cultivation.

Stone Artefact Types: Silcrete

Damage Types: