

|                                   |                  |                       |
|-----------------------------------|------------------|-----------------------|
| Archaeological Site Report | SiteNo    | BLAUW01               |
|                                   | Site Name | Blauwbank 01          |
|                                   | Date      | 01/08/2002 - 07:31    |
|                                   | Project   |                       |
|                                   | CaseNID   |                       |
|                                   | Coords    | -26.017389, 27.532806 |

Page No: 1      SiteAutoID: 39996

AlternateCode:
BB16

BroadAgeCategory: Historical

Site Category: Artefacts, Archaeological

SiteComments:

Various old mining tools displayed inside the mine. These tools were found in the mine and in the surrounding area, and are the original tools that the miners used. They give us some insight into historic mining operations over 100 years ago, as well as emphasising how difficult the task of extracting gold would have been.

Manufactured Artefact Types: Metal Items

Damage Types: