SiteComments:

The QZ-C/G4 cemetery comprises of an approximate 160x70m area, with graves clustered towards the east and the west of the indicated site extent. Towards the east, at QZ-C/G4 approximately 80 graves including both modern and traditional style graves are found. An individually fenced area houses a number of traditional style earth-mound graves. Inscribed headstone marked graves all date to the Contemporary Period, primarily from the 1990's onwards, but unmarked traditional style graves, including primarily stone cairn, earth-mound and a few stone outlined graves may well be significantly older.
