Site Category: Shell Midden

Directions:

Follow the footpaths to the koppie - access to the koppie can be made from various points of the housing estate.

SiteComments:

Small shelter under sandstone boulders with limpets and other marine shell. The site is still being used today by someone who has left plastic bags and cloth in the shelter. Most of the shell material and artefacts are distributed on the southwesterly flank of this koppie as there is a steep drop to the east down to the Noordhoek beach and the river.
