

| | | |
|-------------------------------------|------------------|--|
| Archaeological Site Report | SiteNo | 9/2/006/0005 |
| | Site Name | Concentration Camp Garden of Remembrance, Aliwal |
| | Date | North |
| | Project | |
| | CaseNID | |
| | Coords | -30.704660, 26.708405 |
| Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 29478 | | |

Site Category: Burial Grounds & Graves, Monuments & Memorials

Directions:

The property is located 488km from Port Elizabeth and located on the fringe of the CBD of Aliwal North, abutting the main road en-route to Jameston-Queenstown, East London. The property is over the road from the Aliwal High School and abuts the old du Toit Transport land, now used by a driving school for tuition purposes.

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: Visual Description: Colours: Site Features: Condition: Construction Date: Materials: Catalogue: , No: , Significance Category:

AdminComments:

During 1980, the Aliwal North Municipality sold land to the South African Council for War Graves for R2.00 with the aim to establish a commemorative garden. The remains of those who died in the old burial grounds outside the town were exhumed and re-buried. Bibliography archive:

Damage Types: