

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/306/0003
	Site Name	Concentration Camp Cemetery, Louvain, Brandfort
	Date	District
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-28.710743, 26.473372

Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 26508

Site Category: Burial Grounds & Graves

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: This cemetery contains the mortal remains of 1 263 women and children who died during the Anglo-Boer War (1899-1902) in the concentration camp at Brandfort. The cemetery, which was designed by J. du Toit, was officially opened on 22 September 1962 by President C. R. Swart. Visual Description: The cemetery is surrounded with an iron trellis on a stone wall. It has a slated floor. There is mar Colours: Site Features: Condition: FairThe gate at the entrance of the cemetery is broken. The terrain is overgrown with weed. Construction Date: 1961-1962 Materials: Catalogue: , No: Nil, Significance Category:

Damage Types: