

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/501/0002
	Site Name	Archbell House, St Paul's Mission, Thaba 'Nchu
	Date	08/11/2012 - 00:54
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-29.214043, 26.839598

Page No: 1      SiteAutoID: 26032

Site Category: Building

SiteComments:

After the Barolong tribe had moved from Platberg to Thaba Nchu in 1833, the church and the Rev. Archbell's mission house were reerected here. Between 1836 and 1839 this house of the Rev. Archbell was probably enlarged. The house is built of coursed cut stone and has a metal tile roof. Construction Date: 1834 Materials: Coursed cut Stone, Metal Tile

AdminComments:

Archive Import

Damage Types: