

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/436/0024
	Site Name	Christian Science Church, 204 Chapel (Cnr Loop)
	Date	Street, Pietermaritzburg
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-29.606698, 30.377144

Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 26152

Site Category: Building

Directions:

Head along Chapel Street towards Scottsville/Durban (ie: SE). Church is on far left corner at inters At the top of the Loop Street dip at the cross roads.

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: This imposing church building, with its Gothic and Romanesque features, was originally built in 1903/4 as a Congregational Church. The building was designed by the architects Stott and Kirby. Visual Description: A fine example of an Edwardian church, with a broseley tiled roof with dormer window and turret, red Colours: Site Features: High stained glass window and lancet windows. Condition: GoodNeeds better drainage system Construction Date: 1903/4 Materials: brick : broseley tiled roof Catalogue: Pmb, 1987, No: , Significance Category:

Damage Types: