

| | | |
|-----------------------------------|------------------|--|
| Archaeological Site Report | SiteNo | 9/2/448/0022 |
| | Site Name | Police Station, Landdrost (Cnr Church) Street, Veyheid |
| | Date | 15/11/2016 - 12:47 |
| | Project | |
| | CaseNID | |
| | Coords | -27.767679, 30.795308 |

Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 26033

Site Category: Building

Directions:

Forms an important part of a group of historic buildings in the street scape.

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: This sandstone building with its Victorian verandah dates from the end of the last century and forms an essential part of the historic and architectural character of Landdrost Street. Visual Description: Huge sandstone building; corrugated iron roof with decorative wrought-iron railing; doors and window Colours: Site Features: victorian verandah; scroll-work in pillars Condition: Construction Date: 1890c Materials: coursed cut stone : corrugated iron Catalogue: , No: Significance Category:

Damage Types: