

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/446/0006-007
	Site Name	The Rectory, 29 Arbuckle Street, Himeville
	Date
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-29.750943, 29.511099

Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 26060

Site Category: Building

Directions:

On main street, it is situated in suburban setting in grounds of the church

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: Appears to have been used as the rectory from at least the time of construction of the church in 195 Visual Description: Single storey square verandah house with hipped, corrugated-iron roof, masonry walls, semi-glazed d Colours: Site Features: set back from street and behind flowering hedge Condition: good Construction Date: 1930c Materials: brick : corrugated iron Catalogue: , No: H2, Significance Category: CAE

Damage Types: