

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/444/0008
	Site Name	Greytown Museum, 68 Scott (Cnr Durban) Street, Greytown
	Date	14/11/2016 - 14:14
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-29.065121, 30.585873
Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 26069

Site Category: Building

Directions:

Entering Greytown from Pmb. on R622 turn right to Dundee onto Durban Road and third left into Scott Medium impact; set well back: This historic museum building at Greytown, together with the erven on which it is situated, being-(1) Subdivision 2 of Lot 138, Greytown Township, situate in incom (2) Subdivision 1 of Lot 139, Greytown Township, situate incom.

SiteComments:

Archive Import: Built for Dr Daniel History: Built for Dr Daniel Birtwell, District Surgeon for Greytown; served as magistrate's residency 1889-1 The historic building of the Greytown Museum was used as a dwelling-house from 1889 by J. E. Fannin, a prominent local figure of the time, and is a good example of a Natal Victorian veranda house. Visual Description: Double gable and cross gabled roof with bellcast veranda profile on 3 sides. Timber posts and bracke Colours: Site Features: large wild fig tree planted by sister of General Louis Botha, first premier of the Union of South Africa Condition: good Construction Date: 1876c Materials: brick : corrugated iron Catalogue: Peters, 1994 (b), No: G071, Significance Category: A

AdminComments:

Bibliography archive: Greytown Museum

Damage Types: