

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/081/0051
	Site Name	Studland, St Georges Street, Simonstown
	Date	26/08/2021 - 12:08
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-34.190615, 18.426297

Page No: 1      SiteAutoID: 27708

Site Category: Building

Directions:

From the train station get to the main road you turn to your left, go straight there is Methodist sign on left Studland is on your right.

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: This building was built as a "Wine House" or tavern in 1897 by J. P. Eksteen and is probably the oldest building of its kind in South Africa. Access Details: Accessible to property owner Date Unveiled: 1797 Inscriptions: This building was erected as a wine house by Jp Eksteen in 1797 and is probably the oldest existing wine house in South Africa. Environmental Context: It's close to the main road and there's trees next to it close to the Simon's town museum. Original Position: Same position Visual Description: Colours: White Site Features: Historical building Condition: Construction Date: 1897 Materials: Blocks and sand. Catalogue: Simonstown, No: 025, Significance Category:

Damage Types: