

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/010/0002
	Site Name	Dutch Reformed Church, 85 Donkin Street, Beaufort
	Date	West
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-32.349991, 22.582930

Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 29451

Site Category: Building

Directions:

Group. Most important intersection in B West.

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: Building replaced thatched church. Built in 1826-31 and enlarged in 1892-94. James Bisset architect of alterations. Visual Description: Neo-Gothic church, cruciform, with square tower at entrance and octagonal spire with clock above. Lancet windows with cusped arches, sometimes in pairs. Buttresses. Plasterwork of spire, around doors & windows & buttress detail. Colours: Site Features: Large erf with hall & cypress tree at rear. Monuments & graves in front garden. Magnificent cast-iron railings & pierced posts. Condition: Good Construction Date: 1893 Materials: Dressed stone : corrugated iron Catalogue: Beaufort West, No: 18.16A, Significance Category:

AdminComments:

Bibliography archive: Smit, A P (s.a.) Gedenkboek van die Ned Geref Gemeente B-W (1820-1945) Vivier, W G H & Vivier, S Hart van die Groot Karoo

Damage Types: