

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	9/2/010/0017/001
	Site Name	Old Dutch Reformed Mission Church Parsonage, 91
	Date	Donkin Street, Beaufort West
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-32.350820, 22.583254
Page No: 1 SiteAutoID: 29445

Site Category: Building

Directions:

Group (with nos 87 & 89). High wall of shops on R boundary

SiteComments:

Archive Import History: The early nineteenth century parsonage was enlarged in 1914 by the Rev. A. H. Barnard and was the birthplace of the well-known heart surgeon, Prof. Chris Barnard and his brother Dr Marius Barnard. Visual Description: S/s villa, hipped roof, triangular louvred ventilators, projecting wing on R with covered end gable & bay window with 3 shuttered sash windows. Verandah roof on timber posts, wooden brackets & pendants, balustrade Colours: Site Features: Set far back behind tecoma hedge, garden. Long gravelled path from gate to entrance between clipped tecoma hedge. Palm tree, plane tree. 2 broken & 1 intact millstone. Condition: Fair Construction Date: Materials: Plastered brick : corrugated iron Catalogue: Beaufort West, No: 21.2B, Significance Category:

Damage Types: