Site Category: Rock Art

SiteComments:

The site is about 1,7 km from the entrance on the west side of the Steenboks River above caravan site. It is a shallow overhang facing south-west on the western side of a rocky outcrop. The paintings are of three or four human figures (probably male as they carry bows) in faded black paint over an area of about 230 x 180 mm. They are on a part of the rock face that has been covered by grey salts deposited by water seeping through a crack above the painted area.
