SiteComments:

St John's Anglican Church. Simple four-bay Neo-Gothic Hall Church with high walls and high saddle-roof. Narrow pointed twin windows and stepped buttresses between them and in the corners. Entrance has a pointed gable with shoulders and edge-mouldings. Pointed arched double door: stained glass window on end-wall. Street wall with pillars and cast-iron railings gates. Stone wall along back boundary. A simple but pleasant church of local architectural and cultural value and should be investigated for possible proclamation (AC).Class A.
