SiteComments:

A single storey U-shaped dwelling house built in the late 19th century with 2 projecting wings, under pitched corrugated iron roof . Covered gable ends with later Tudor detailing. Verandah, which extends the full length of the facade, is under straight corrugated iron roof supported by masonry pillars with low masonry balustrade. Verandah infill on West section . Plaster is rusticated at corners and window and door surrounds. Windows generally 6 x 6 panes, sliding sashes, except casement windows on verandah. Beautifully panelled entrance door, with ornamental fanlight. This is an elegant house which should be protected in the Town Planning Scheme and investigated for proclamation.
