CommonName:

MKU02

Site Category: Artefacts, Burial Grounds & Graves

Directions:

MKU02 is located in the northeastern section of the study area halfway up a hill.

SiteComments:

The site consists of a scatter of artefacts and a possible grave. The artefacts consist of various upper and lower grinding stones and pottery sherds. The possible grave consists of a concentration of stones slightly downhill from the main scatter of artefacts. This could be a natural feature, but should be treated as a grave until proven otherwise.
