

Archaeological Site Report	SiteNo	NPT-006
	Site Name	NOUPOORT
	Date	19/02/2012 - 14:07 to 01/07/2021 - 14:07
	Project
	CaseNID
	Coords	-31.168320, 25.051410

Page No: 1      SiteAutoID: 138103

AlternateName:

NO.6

Site Category: Structures

SiteComments:

According to Mr Lessing, the owner of the farm, these structures were erected by sheep herders who brought the sheep up onto to high areas during the summer, and were vacated during winter when it became too cold. Typically these structures seem to consist of a small area used for sleeping and a larger enclosed space used to keep the sheep in overnight.

Damage Types: