

'Afrikaans gaan global'

'n Regstreekse aanlyn konsert, Afrikaans gaan global, vind plaas op Saterdag 5 September vanaf 12:00.

Die vertoning bied 12 ure se ononderbroke vermaak met 25 kunstenaars, onder wie Kurt Darren, Theuns Jordaan, Juanita du Plessis, Karlien van Jaarsveld, Elandré, Jay, Refentse, Robbie Wessels, Ricus Nel, Dirk van der Westhuizen, Brendan Peyper en Christia Visser.

Volgens Albertus Potgieter, besturende direkteur van iTickets, is die #MYfonds gestig vir die sangers en musikante en vind hulle direk baat by die kaartjieverkope.

"Daar is soveel byeenkomste wat voor die inperking gekanselleer is en daar is min mense wat nie deur dié pandemie geraak word nie. Hierdie is 'n wonderlike inisiatief en ons as Suid-Afrikaanse kunstenaars kan nie wag om weer op die groot verhoog te klim nie; ons weet ons lojale ondersteuners is uitgehonger vir musiek, braai en samesyn," sê Kurt Darren.

Kaartjies vir Afrikaans gaan global kos R120 en is by www.itickets.co.za beskikbaar. 'n Loting word tydens die konsert gehou en kaartjies daarvoor kos R100.

Dié pryse sluit in:

- Die Afrikaans gaan global Ford F250-bakkie;
- 'n Luukse bootvaart op die MSC Sinfonia;
- Drie Weber Spirit-gasbraaiers en vier Weber Premium-houtskoolbraaiers met bybore;
- Braai-geskenkpakke van Weber, Rooibaard-sous en BitFarming.

Beperkte gehore nou by Jamrock

'n Maksimum van 50 mense kan nou in lewende lywe Bok Radio se Biltong-sessies by die Jamrock-teater in Brackenfell bywoon.

Dié maand se vertonings, almal op Saterdag, is:

- 5 September: Jan Blohm
- 12 September: Spoegwolf

● 19 September: Nadine

● 26 September: Elvis Blue

'Wild animal' safari day

The Blouberg International School has introduced a fun approach to pre-reception learners who have been learning about wild animals. Educators placed wild animal cut-outs around the classrooms and each learner received a checklist which they had to tick off when they found the corresponding animal. They enthusiastically set off with their binoculars they made in class the previous day out of toilet roll inners, to spot the animals in their habitat.

Milnerton and Table view residents can now have a taste of India at Moksh restaurant at The Paddocks Shopping Centre which promises to fulfil every spicy desire.

Owner Sunil Krishnan has nine restaurants all located in the Western Cape and wants to thank all customers that supported them to sustain themselves during these tough times.

According to Krishnan, the name Moksh is derived from Hindi and means highest level of satisfaction and freedom.

He says this resonates with him as he wants his visitors to experience the highest level of satisfaction when visiting the restaurant.

Born and raised in Mumbai, India,

Krishnan came to South Africa as a young entrepreneur. He holds a B.com degree and has done his Management studies in Marketing.

At Moksh "The quality of food lies in the honesty of its ingredients". Customers can order MILD, MEDIUM OR HOT.

In 2012 he opened his first Moksh restaurant in Paarl.

"I went from table to table to explain to the customers what Indian dishes entail – each with its own distinctive taste: mild, medium and hot," says Krishnan

"At Moksh, we don't take shortcuts when it comes to quality and authentic taste.

"My aim is to have Moksh become the best Indian restaurant in South Africa. If you ask someone which Indian restaurant they enjoy, they should say Moksh."

He says he feels blessed to have opened the nine restaurants over the past nine years.

The other restaurants are in Platteklouf, Durbanville, Haasendal in Kuils River, Kenilworth, Paarl, Worcester, Somerset West and Langebaan.

He is already busy with the planning of the 10th restaurant in Bergvliet.

"Come enjoy chicken methi malai or lamb madras curry. All our chefs come from India. They have great knowledge of Indian cuisine and a passion for the food they prepare," says Krishnan. Moksh cuisine is from North India.
