

It is the EAP's opinion that an adequate number of site photos have been included in the main report and there is therefore no necessity to include a separate appendix for photos as these will largely be repetitions.