

Appendix C: Site Photographs

The photographs below provide an overview of the general site conditions and surrounding area. Please refer to the additional photographs contained in the specialist reports attached in appendix E for photographic representation of features specific to the various specialist disciplines.

