

Plate 1: Showing section of overgrazed veld in the vicinity of one of the boreholes to the south of the RE Capital 11 Study site.

Plate 2: Showing the existing access to the property off the N14

Plate 3: Showing one of the larger drainage channels that will be avoided by the development

Plate 4: Showing the existing access track on the property.

Plate 5: Showing example of the historical mining activities and gravel stockpiles situated north of the Study Site.

Plate 6: Showing the Existing Khi Solar One – Concentrated solar project (CSP) on the adjacent property.

Plate 7: Showing the existing 132 KV power line .