

SITE PHOTOGRAPHS

Picture 1: Site notice at the start of the project on the corner of Nelson Mandela Dr – N11 Section 13 and Dudu Madisha Dr. (GPS- S 24°10' 37.82" E 29° 00' 06.66")

Picture 2: The N11 Section 13 at Km 1.30 (Start of the project)

Picture 3: Dorps River Bridge at km 2.92. The bridge will be replaced by a new structure.

Picture 4: The N11 Section 13 at Km 6.0.

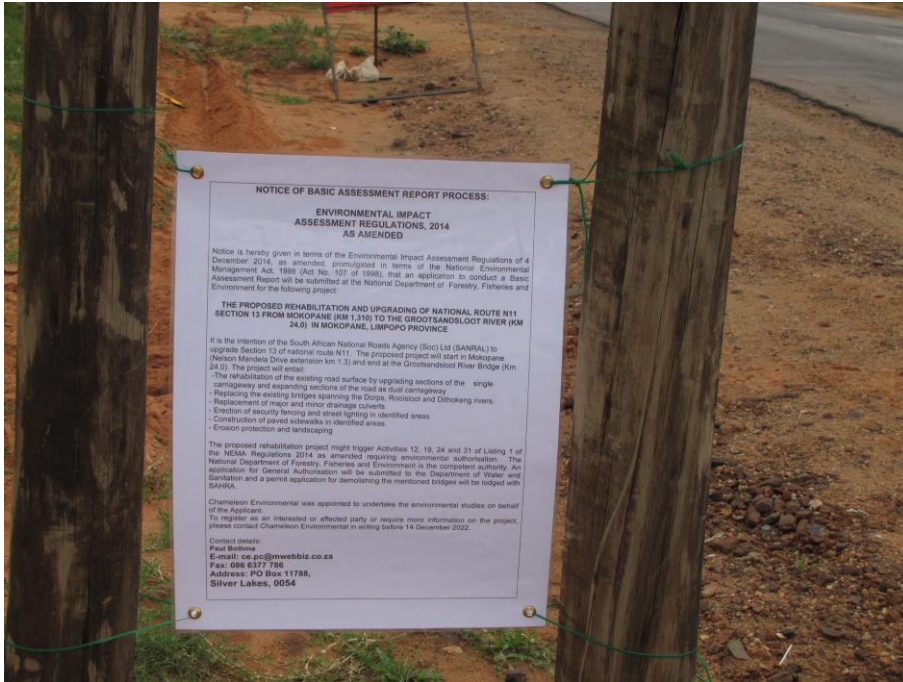

Picture 5: The Rooisloot River Bridge at Km7.75 will be replaced by a new structure.

Picture 6: The second site notice was erected at Km 12.0 which is also the centre of the project.

(GPS- S 24° 05' 49.65" E 28° 58' 05.59")

Picture 7: An enlarged image of the site notice at Km 12.0.

Picture 8: The Dithokeng River Bridge at Km 15.61 will be replaced by a new structure.

Picture 9: Road signage at Km 18.0. A Marula tree (protected species) is close to the roadside and might be impacted on by the project.

Picture 10: The project ends just before the Groot Sandsloot Bridge visible in the distance. The bridge will not be affected by the project.

Picture 11: The third site notice was placed near the end of the project (Km 24.0)
(GPS- S 23° 59' 39.86" E 28° 57' 37.25")

Picture 12: An enlarged image of the site notice.

Picture 13: The last Km sign board before the Groot Sandsloot River Bridge was on the opposite side of the N11 where the site notice was placed.

Picture 14: A site notice was placed on the notice board just outside the entrance to the Mogalakwena Public Library.

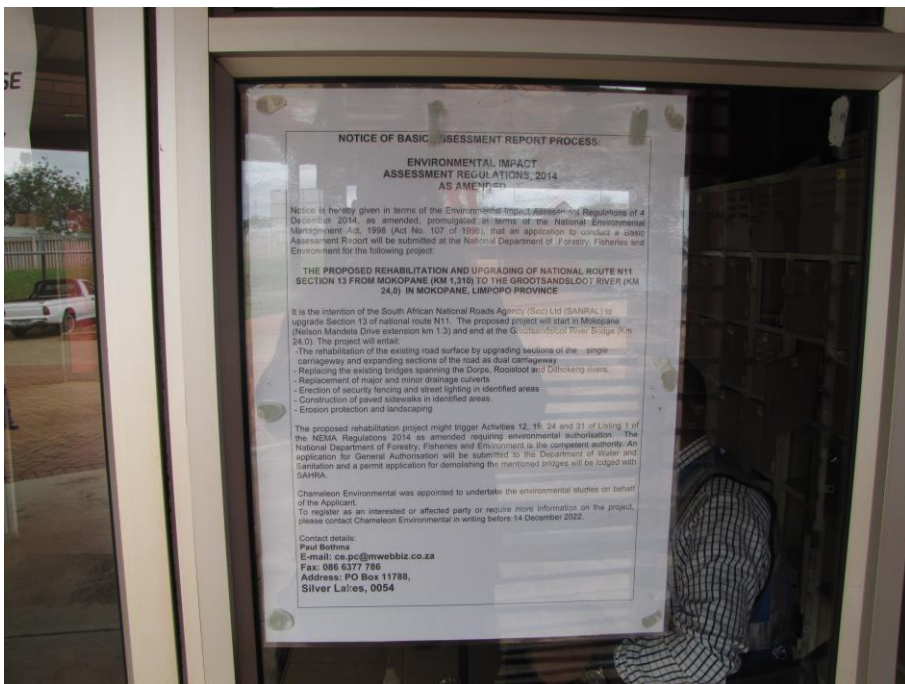

Picture 15: The notice boards are visible on both sides at the entrance to the library.

Picture 16: An enlarged image of the site notice.

Picture 17: A site notice was also erected at the Mahwereleng public library. The site notice is visible to the right of the person wearing the pink dress.

Picture 18: An enlarged copy of the site notice referred to in Picture 17.

Picture 19: Another image of Marula trees in close proximity to the existing road surface.