

APPENDIX B: SITE PHOTOGRAPHS

ALTERNATIVE SITE 1

 Indigenous trees (swamp forest) located north west of the site.	 Indigenous trees (swamp forest) located north west of the site.
NORTH WEST	NORTH
 A patch of coastal forest located west of the site. Existing access road can be seen in the foreground.	 Swamp forest located north east of the site. To the right of the photograph gum trees can be observed.
WEST	NORTH EAST

In the background of the picture is the traction station. On the left of the picture gums on the site can be seen and on the right of the picture is a patch of coastal forest with the existing access road in the middle.

SOUTH WEST

East of the site is the extension of the gum plantation on site.

EAST

Grassland dominates south of the site. A railway line runs along the power lines in the background.

SOUTH

An existing access road runs along the southern boundary of the site. Grassland dominates with a few scattered trees.

SOUTH EAST

ALTERNATIVE SITE 2

 26/10/2012	 26/10/2012
In the foreground are gum trees growing on the site. In the background on the left is a swamp forest.	North of the site is the continuation of the gum plantation.
NORTH WEST	NORTH
 26/10/2012	 26/10/2012
In the foreground are gum trees growing on the site. In the background is a swamp forest.	The eastern boundary of the site is bordered by an existing access road. East of the access road is a grassland.
WEST	NORTH EAST
 26/10/2012	 26/10/2012
South east of the site is a swamp forest.	The eastern boundary of the site is bordered by an existing access road. East of the access road is a grassland.
SOUTH EAST	EAST

South of the site is a secondary grassland. In the background is the swamp forest located north of site 1.

SOUTH

South east is a grassland. In the background is the swamp forest located north of site 1.

SOUTH EAST

ALTERNATIVE SITE 3

 26/10/2012 In the foreground is cultivated land with cabbages growing. In the background are power lines along the railway line.	 26/10/2012 In the foreground is cultivated land with cabbages growing. In the background are power lines along the railway line.
NORTH WEST	NORTH
 26/10/2012 In the foreground is cultivated land with cabbages growing. In the background are power lines along the railway line and houses.	 26/10/2012 In the foreground is cultivated land and in the background are power lines along the railway line. Beyond the railway line are gums on site 1.
WEST	NORTH EAST

In the foreground is cultivated land with cabbages growing. In the background are houses bordering the site. Some mealies can be seen growing next to the cream building in the middle.

SOUTH WEST

In the foreground is cultivated land and in the background and to the right of the picture are some buildings forming part of Port Durnford town.

EAST

In the foreground is cultivated land with some cabbage growing. In the background to the left of the picture are some buildings forming part of Port Durnford town.

SOUTH

In the foreground is cultivated land. In the background are some buildings forming part of Port Durnford town.

SOUTH EAST

ALTERNATIVE SITE 4

 In the foreground is a patch of grassland infested with weeds. In the background are gum and other exotic trees.	 In the foreground is lawn and in the background some exotic trees.
NORTH WEST	NORTH
 In the foreground is a grassland infested with weeds. In the background are gums and other exotic trees.	 In the foreground is lawn and in the middle is the protected yellow wood tree. The site is adjacent to houses.
WEST	NORTH EAST
 In the foreground is a grassland, heavily infested by weeds. In the background is a woodlot of gum trees.	 In the foreground is lawn and in the background are indigenous trees with the protected yellow wood tree on the left. Houses are adjacent to the site.
SOUTH WEST	EAST

In the foreground is a grassland heavily infested with weeds. In the background is a woodlot of gum trees and some houses.

SOUTH

In the foreground is a grassland infested with weeds. In the background are indigenous trees and some houses.

SOUTH EAST

ALTERNATIVE SITE 5 (PREFERRED ALTERNATIVE SITE)

 26/10/2012	 26/10/2012
In the foreground is a patch of grassland and gum trees growing on the site. An existing access roads runs on the northern boundary of the site which runs parallel to the railway line. In the background is a gum plantation.	In the foreground is the access road which runs on the northern boundary of the site. Running parallel to the access road is a railway line. Between the railway line and the timber plantation in the background is a wetland.
NORTH WEST	NORTH
 26/10/2012	 26/10/2012
In the foreground are relic foundations of the saw mill. In the background is a grassland infested with weeds.	In the foreground is a grassland with scattered shrubs and weeds. In the background a coastal forest can be seen.
WEST	NORTH EAST
 26/10/2012	 26/10/2012
In the foreground are young gum trees and grassland. In the background is a grassland infested with weeds.	In the foreground is a grassland with scattered shrubs and weeds. In the background are houses which form part of Port Durnford town.
SOUTH WEST	EAST

In the foreground is a degraded grassland with scattered shrubs and weeds. In the background are exotic trees and a building.

SOUTH

In the foreground is a degraded grassland with scattered shrubs and weeds. In the background are exotic trees and a fence.

SOUTH EAST

Site for the proposed substation and young eucalypt plantation in the background.

Relic foundations of the sawmill located within the eucalypt plantation.

Graves of Mr A Djudla's family are located here, adjacent to the north west of project site.