Begrotingsrede 2023: Agri Wes-Kaap versigtig optimisties

Agri Wes-Kaap (AWK) is versigtig optimisties oor Enoch Godongwana, minister van finansies, se aankondiging dat die regering ongeveer 60% (R254 miljard) van Eskom se skuld las sal help verlig. Die hoop is dat 'n laer skuld las vir Eskom in staat sal stel om aandag aan instandhouding en investering in kritiese opwekking en transmissie-infrastruktuur te kan gee.

AWK verwelkom ook die aankondiging dat R903 miljard op infrastruktuur spandeer sal word.

Die investering in die logistieke netwerk is vir die Wes-Kaapse landbou, wat uitvoergedrewe is, deurslaggewend. Volgens die minister sal 15% van betonwerk van die Clanwilliamdam-projek aan die einde van 2023 voltooi wees. AWK is van mening dat dié projek krities is en daar reeds lank genoeg gesloer is.

Dit is goeie nuus dat besigede hul belasbare inkomste met 125 persent van die koste van 'n belegging in hernubare energie kan verminder. AWK is van mening dat hierdie 'n stap in die regte rigting is om weg te beweeg van Eskom as monopolie-energieverskaffer.

Agri Wes-Kaap verwelkom die kortings wat voedselverwerkers oor die volgende twee jaar sal ontvang vir die gebruik van diesel vir kragopwekkers. Ons is ook dankbaar dat die algemene brandstof- en padson-gelüksfondsheffing nie vanjaar verhoog is nie.

Alhoewel AWK gehoop het vir geen verhoging in die aksynsbelasting, is ons verlig oor tesourie se aankondiging dat aksynsbelasting op alkohol en tabak inlyn is met die verwa-

A peach led to fame and fortune

January is the time to enjoy a Neethling peach. This delicious juicy cultivar was cultivated on the Neethling in the Prince Albert district in the late 1800s by Pieter Kuiper Neethling, states historian Ailsa Tudhope.

He arrived in 1876 and on learning that deciduous fruit had been grown in this area since the 1760's, decided to concentrate on the Neethling. It was an instant winner. This cultivar, which is still grown in the area, has a good yellow colour, excellent flavour and firm texture.

In addition to farming Pieter ran a general dealer business, called Alport, for Canadian immigrant Percy Alport, brother-in-law of Sir John Charles Molteno, first Premier of the Cape. Percy had a general dealer and other businesses in Beaufort West and he also owned the wool washing plant at Klarstroom.

In 1901 Pieter helped establish the Prince Albert municipality and served as the first mayor. It is said that when Pieter died at 10:00 on October 10, 1937, at the age of 90. the Dutch Reformed Church clock stopped.

Na die vyfde en voorlaaste rondte van Sakeliga 2023 is die Rotariërs nog steeds bo-aan die punteleer.

Quest het op hul beurt teen Brothers Inc. gewen. Nog buiteperde is AIFA en Goodhope wat na rondte 5 onderskeidelik derde en vierde lê.
