2. REGULATIONS FOR PUBLIC PARTICIPATION

Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, 2002 (Act No. 28 of 2002) [MPRDA]

In terms of Sections 5, 10, 22 and 83 of the MPRDA, landowners and interested and affected parties are entitled to participate in and be consulted in respect of mining applications. The Applicant has to engage with the relevant landowners and/or lawful occupiers in good faith. The landowner or lawful occupier should, during the consultation process, be provided with the necessary information on all intended activities so as to enable him or her to make an informed decision as to whether or not to make use of the internal procedures (objection and appeal) if the application is approved, as well as whether or not to take the administrative action concerned on review.

The applicant must:

- inform the landowner in writing that his application for a prospecting right over the relevant land has been accepted by the Regional Manager;
- provide sufficient detail of the proposed prospecting or mining activities so as to enable the landowner to assess the potential impact of such activities on its use and enjoyment of the land;
- consult the landowner with a view to reaching agreement to the satisfaction of both parties as regards the impact of the proposed application; and
- submit the results of the consultation process to the Regional Manager within the requisite period.

Environmental Impact Assessment Regulations (2010)

Guideline 7 on "Public Participation in the Environmental Impact Assessment Process" published by Department of Environmental Affairs (DEA) in October 2012, states that public participation is one of the most important aspects of the environmental authorisation process. This stems from the requirement that people have a right to be informed about potential decisions that may affect them and that they must be afforded an opportunity to influence those decisions.

Effective public participation also facilitates informed decision-making by the Competent Authority and may result in better decisions as the views of all parties are considered.

The benefits of public participation include the following:

- Provides an opportunity for Interested and Affected parties (I&APs), Environmental Assessment Practitioners (EAPs) and the Competent Authority (CA) to obtain clear, accurate and understandable information about the environmental impacts of the proposed activity or implications of a decision;
- Provides I&APs with an opportunity to voice their support, concerns and questions regarding the project, application or decision;
- Provides I&APs with the opportunity of suggesting ways of reducing or mitigating negative impacts of an activity and for enhancing positive impacts;
- Enables the applicant to incorporate the needs, preferences and values of affected parties into the application;
- Provides opportunities for clearing up misunderstandings about technical issues, resolving disputes and reconciling conflicting interests;
- It is an important aspect of securing transparency and accountability in decision-making; and
- Contributes toward maintaining a healthy, vibrant democracy.

A Public Participation Process (PPP) is a requirement in terms of Regulations 54 – 57 of the Environmental Impact Assessment Regulations (2010) of the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 (Act No. 107 of 1998) and it forms an integral part of any EIA process.

BACKGROUND INFORMATION DOCUMENT

PUBLIC PARTICIPATION PROCESS FOR A SCOPING AND ENVIRONMENTAL IMPACT ASSESSMENT AND INTEGRATED WATER USE LICENSE APPLICATION FOR THE MAMATWAN MANGANESE ORE MINE

DMR REF: NC 30/1/2/2/10031 MR

N/C DENCE REF: NC/EIA/10/JTG/GA/MAM/2013

ENVIASS REF: 145_12-13

PURPOSE

The purpose of this Background Information Document (BID) is to inform Interested and/or Affected Parties (I&APs) about the Scoping, EIA and WULA process that is being conducted for the proposed Mamatwan Manganese Mine near Hotazel, Northern Cape Province.

In addition to supplying information regarding the project and the Scoping and EIA process, the BID also provides I&APs with the opportunity to:

- Register as an I&AP and to respond to the environmental compliance process;
- Raise issues of concern and provide suggestions for enhanced benefits;
- Contribute to local knowledge;
- Comment on the Draft Scoping Report (SR) & Environmental Management Program (EMP); and
- Inform any other person / organization that they may feel should be informed about the project.

INTRODUCTION & PROJECT BACKGROUND

The Applicant, Mamatwan Manganese South Africa (Pty) Ltd., intends to undertake a Scoping and Environmental Impact Assessment process as well as an Integrated Water Use License Application as part of their application for a mining right, environmental authorisation and water use license for the proposed Mamatwan manganese mine. Compliance is required in terms of the Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act, 2002 (Act No. 28 of 2002), the National Environmental Management Act, 1998 (Act No. 107 of 1998) [as amended] and the National Water Act, 1998 (Act No. 36 of 1998). These Acts call for a comprehensive independent assessment of potential environmental impacts as well as the involvement of registered I&APs in the impact assessment process. The sharing of information forms an important component of the public participation process and provides you with the opportunity to become actively involved in the process from the onset.

The proposed mine (herein after referred to as "the site"), will be located on the Remaining Extent as well as the Remaining Extent of Portion 3, Portion 8 & 18 of the Farm Mamatwan 331 (342.61 Ha) (Refer to Figure 1 below). The project is located in Kalahari Manganese Fields (KMF) of the Northern Cape Province of South Africa. The KMF is known to have 80% of the world's known high-grade manganese.

Manganese is found as a free element in nature (often in combination with iron), and many other minerals. It is an important industrial metal for alloy uses, particularly in stainless steels. Manganese phosphate is used as a treatment for rust and corrosion prevention on steel. Depending on their oxidation state, manganese ions have various colours and are used industrially as pigments. The most important manganese ore is pyrolusite (MnO_2) and other economically important manganese ores usually show a close spatial relation to the iron ores. Land-based resources are large but irregularly distributed. Over 80% of the known world manganese resources are found in South Africa. These mostly occur near Hotazel in the Northern Cape Province. According to the USGS, reserves were estimated at 13 billion tons in 2009 and SA produced 1 300 000 tons of manganese ore in that year.

LOCALITY AND RECEIVING ENVIRONMENT

The site is located within the municipal boundaries of the John Taolo Gaetsewe District Municipality and borders the Ga Segonyana, Joe Morolong and Gamagara Local Municipalities. Hotazel, Kuruman and Kathu are the closest towns being irrespectively 20km north, 55km east and 40km south. The site will be located adjacent to the west of the existing Mamatwan Mine (owned by Samancor) and R380.

The proposed site is located within an area which is already severely disturbed as result of agricultural and extensive mining activities. Most of the mining activities within the Joe Morelong and Gamagara areas are connected to the Sishen-Saldanha and Sishen-PE railway routes. To this effect, mining and exploration activities occurring within the surrounding area includes inter alia:

- Wessels Mine (underground operation)
- Tshipi Mine (opencast mining)
- Mamatwan Mine (opencast mining)
- UMK Mine (opencast mining)
- Kudumane (opencast mining)

NEED & DESIRABILITY

Economic:

South Africa has one of the world's largest manganese reserves. The highest concentration of manganese mines who produce predominant high and mid grade ores, are located in the Kalahari Manganese Basin. These predominant high grade ores are the most common export commodity in the Northern Cape. Research also indicates that the manganese industry will experience an even stronger export demand within the next 10 years. The proposed Mamatwan Manganese Mine will ensure that the Northern Cape and South Africa will benefit from the projected growth of the manganese industries. This growth will be based on the increasing global need for steel manufacturing, as well as ensuring higher steel grades through altering the steel product mix.

Socio-economic:

Unemployment is a major problem within the Taolo Gaetsewe District. The proposed Mamatwan Manganese Mine will have a significant positive impact on the baseline socio-economic conditions of the local communities involved. The mine will create several employment opportunities and preference will be given to the locally unemployed wherever possible. The mine will contribute towards the socio-economic development of the region as a whole through social upliftment and job creation as primary agents.

The mine will as part of the Infrastructure and Poverty Alleviation projects (IPAPS) help address the needs of the municipality identified, which includes:

- Infrastructure (water provision of communities with no water)
- Income generation (facilities for tourists where local communities can generate income)

Environmental

The proposed site for the Mamatwan Mine is located within an area which is already severely disturbed as result of agricultural and extensive mining activities. The proposed mine will be located adjacent to the west of the existing Mamatwan Mine. As a result of the anthropogenic influences evident in the area, it is highly unlikely that any environmental, or cultural effects of high significance are existent within the study area.

The project is aligned with the objectives of the municipal Spatial Development Framework and Integrated Development Plan and will not compromise the integrity of these respective forward planning documents.

LEGISLATIVE FRAMEWORK

The proposed mine and associated operations requires compliance with the EIA Regulations of 2010, promulgated in terms of the NEMA, Act no. 107 of 1998 (as amended). The proposed activity requires an EIA (refer to Figure 3 below) in terms of the activities below.

GN no. R 544 Activity no:

- 9: The construction of facilities or infrastructure for the transmission and distribution of electricity outside urban areas or industrial complexes with a capacity of more than 33 but less than 275 kilovolts;
- 11: The construction of infrastructure or structures covering 50 square metres or more where such construction occurs within a watercourse or within 32 metres of a watercourse:
- 13: The construction of facilities for the storage and handling, of a dangerous good, where such storage occurs in containers with a combined capacity of 80 but not exceeding 500 cubic metres;
- 18: The infilling or depositing of any material of more than 5 cubic metres into, of the dredging, excavation, removal or moving of soil, sand, pebbles or rock of more than 5 cubic metres from a watercourse;
- 22: The construction of a road, outside urban areas, where nor reserve exists where the road is wider than 8 metres;
- 37: The expansion of infrastructure for the bulk transportation of water, where the infrastructure is expanded by more than 1 000 metres in length or where the throughput capacity of the facility or infrastructure will be increased by 10% or more;
- 47: The lengthening of a road by more than 1 kilometre, where no reserve exists, where the existing road is wider than 8 metres; and
