GOEGAP NATUURRESERVAAT DIEN AS NAVORSINGSTASIE

"Streepveldmuise word as model gebruik om te verstaan hoe diere klimaatsverandering hanteer."

R Cloete

SPRINGBOK - Die streepveldmuis-projek het in 2001 in die Goegap Natuurreservaat begin. Professor Carsten Schradin verduidelik waarom dit so belangrik is om die gedrag en gewoontes van die streepmuis te bestudeer.

"Gestreepte muise word as model gebruik om te verstaan hoe diere klimaatsverandering kan hanteer, veral droogtes. Net soos ons laboratoriumknaagdiere benodig om wetenskaplike deurbrake in biomediese navorsing te maak, het ons ook modelorganismes nodig om te verstaan hoe globale verandering, insluitend klimaatsverandering, ons planeet beïnvloed.

Aangesien streepmuise slegs een jaar leef en daar elke jaar in die lente 'n nuwe generasie gebore word wat die warm somer moet oorleef om weer voort te kan plant, is dit 'n baie beter model vir hierdie soort navorsing as langlewende spesies of spesies wat dormant in die somer is."

Die studies toon daar is 'n verskil in die gedrag van muise in die somer teenoor die wintermaande. In die reënseisoen vind voortplanting plaas en dan is daar meer kompetisie onder die muise en word die groepe onstabiel. "As die bevolkingsdigtheid laag is, kan hulle alleen leef om die konflik te vermy. In die somer woon hulle altyd in groepe. Hulle eet dan 'n baie algemene maar nie baie goeie struik nie; dus is daar geen kompetisie vir hierdie slegte voedselbron nie. Hulle slaap snags saam en maak mekaar warm wat hulle help om energie te bespaar sodat hulle minder kos benodig. Hulle is ook minder aktief in die somer om energie te bespaar," sê die professor.

Die Universiteit van die Witwatersrand, Universiteit van Zurich (Switzerland) en die CNRS Strasbourg Navorsingssentrum in Frankryk is betrokke by hierdie projek. Hul bevindings word in vooraanstaande internasionale joernale gepubliseer. 'n Ongelooflike 80 artikels wat verband hou met hul werk in Goegap is die afgelope 20 jaar gepubliseer.

Vanaf 2005 tot en met Maart 2020 was daar altyd studente by die navorsingstasie, maar weens Covid-19 moes dit sluit. In September en Oktober het daar egter weer 'n groep Suid-Afrikaanse studente kom werk. Een sal waarskynlik vroeg 2021 terugkeer om data vir haar PhD in te samel.

Professor Carsten sê wat die streepmuise so interessant maak, is die feit dat hulle "meesters in energiebesparing is en dat hulle saamwerk om dit te bereik." Die muise is baie sosiaal en help mekaar wanneer omstandighede versleg. Nietemin, in die uiterste droogte van 2003 het hulle amper uitgesterf. Dit is weer eens 'n bewys hoe broos ons natuurstelsel is.

Hy sê dat hulle bevind dat daar wel 'n verskil is tussen die kleiner en groter soogdiere. "Klein soogdiere het die meeste gely gedurende die relatief kort, maar uiterste droogte van Januarie tot Augustus 2003. Dit was so droog, daar was geen kos nie en die meeste het gevrek.

Groot soogdiere het vetreserwes gehad en het beter daarvan afgekom. Maar gedurende die droogtejare 2016-2019 het klein soogdiere relatief goed gevaar, terwyl groot soogdiere veel meer gely het. Dit wys ons dat verskillende vorme van droogtes ons natuurstelsels op verskillende maniere skadelik beïnvloed."

Watter ander navorsingspotensiaal bestaan daar in Namakwaland? "Studies oor die biodiversiteit van plante en insekte en aanpassing by droogtes. Ons begin nou met 'n studie oor die Karoo-rot om die koste en voordele van alleenstaande lewens te verstaan."

Hy sluit af deur te sê Namakwalanders moet besef dat hulle in 'n unieke omgewing van uiters hoë biodiversiteit leef wat baie kwesbaar is. Namakwaland het 'n groot aantal endemiese spesies en juis daarom moet ons hierdie area koester en na aan ons hart dra.

NOTICE OF AN EIA PROCESS FOR TWO ALLUVIAL DIAMOND PROSPECTING RIGHT APPLICATIONS WITH BULK SAMPLING BY SAMARA MINING PTY LTD ON THE LEFT BANK OF THE ORANGE RIVER NEAR SENDELINGSDRIF, RICHTERSVELD, NAMAQUA DISTRICT

Samara Mining Pty Ltd is seeking environmental authorisation to commission the proposed prospecting, bulk sampling and required prospecting infrastructure. The applications are subject to an EIA Process and a consolidated process is being followed. The prospecting right application areas (PRAA) and the area sizes include:

Applications	Property	Size
PRAA 1 – (12664) PR	Left bank of the Orange River boundary to Portion of Remainder of Farm Richtersveld No. 11	987.98 Ha
PRAA 2 – (12663) PR	Left bank of the Orange River boundary to Portion of the Remainder of Farm No. 18	690 Ha

Application is also made under the next set of legislation:
- Mineral and Petroleum Resources Development Act (Act 28/2002) (MPRDA) – Prospecting Right with bulk sampling
- National Water Act (Act 36/1998) (NWA) – Water Use License

Samara will prospect for diamonds from the bed, banks and various terraces along the Orange River, near the Sendelingsdrif. The bulk sampling activities will include seven (7) prospecting pockets within the two PRAAs. Ten (10) trenches will be excavated per application area, each 100m x 25m x 4m with each sample sizes being 10 000m^3. The prospecting programme period will be five (5) years. A Rotary Pan Plant will screen, concentrate, process the excavated samples and recover the diamonds. Water for processing will be abstracted from the Orange River. Minor water diversions will be constructed around the excavations including abstraction, and filtration of river water, with release of clarified water back to the river, downstream of workings. No slimes dam will be constructed.

A WUL Application in terms of section 40 of the NWA will be submitted to the Department of Water and Sanitation: Orange Proto for Section 21 water uses (S21a, c, f, g, i) triggered by the diamond prospecting including an application for the relaxation of conditions imposed by GN704 (GG-20119), due to workings within the river flood line. Applicable water uses include:

ALMAL GENIET NASIONALE PARKE TYDENS NASIONALE PARKEWEEK

M. Mostert

SUID-AFRIKA – Watter wonderlike ervaring moet dit vir mense wees wat die eerste keer in hul lewe 'n nasionale park besoek? Gratis. En daar is spesiale voorsiening gemaak vir persone met gestremdhede. Fantasties.

Dit is noodsaaklik dat alle Suid-Afrikaners die ryk biodiversiteit en kultuur geniet wat onder nasionale parke se vaandel beskerm word. Baie mense het egter nog nooit die kans gehad om een van die land se pragtige 19 nasionale parke te besoek nie. Nou kan almal daardie voorreg smaak. SANParke hou weer hul jaarlikse Nasionale Parkeweek van 16 – 20 November en dan kan landsburgers gratis toegang tot hul fasiliteite geniet.

Die Parkeweek is weens Covid-19 van September na November uitgestel. Die tema hierdie jaar is 'Ken jou Nasionale Parke' en die week sal Sondag by die Weskus Nasionale Park bekendgestel word. Die gratis toegang sluit nie verblyf en toeriste-aktiwiteite in nie en die Namakwa Nasionale Park en die Boulders-deel van die Tafelberg Nasionale Park is nie deel van die week nie. So, jy sal steeds moet hoes om Skilpad deur te toer.

Die Kruger Nasionale Park gaan as deel van die week sorg dat gestremdheid glad nie 'n struikelblok vir besoekers sal wees nie. 'n Groep plaaslike inwoners is reeds voor Parkeweek bederf met 'n uitstappie na Berg-en-Dal in die Kruger-park. Die geriewe is so aangepas en ontwerp dat visueel-gestremde persone, hardhorendes en mobiel-gestremdes ook 'n aangename ervaring kan hê. Die groep se besoek het begin met 'n Braille-roete al langs die aangrensende ruskamp se draad af. Visueelgestremdes is met 'n tou gelei en het by bankies gestop om die voël- en dieregeluide in die omgewing te geniet. Braille-beskrywings van die diere is op inligtingsborde aangebring en veldwagters het verskillende bokke en buffels se horings gebring vir 'n gevoelservaring.

SOLIDARITY FUND OPENS FUNDING CALL FOR COMMUNITY BASED ORGANISATIONS (CBO) IN THE GBV SECTOR

Solidarity Fund
Unity in action

Johannesburg, 22 October 2020 - Following the Solidarity Fund’s announcement of its second phase of Gender-Based-Violence support on 16 September, the Fund now opens a call for funding applications from community-based organisations (CBO) in the GBV sector who stand to benefit from a once-off grant from the Fund ranging from R50 000 to R250 000. Applicants should be CBOs that perform or support critical activities and services related to addressing gender-based violence (GBV) across the country.

This second phase has been allocated R75m to be disbursed across approximately 360 organisations, with 75% going towards community-based support and 25% targeting programmes achieving systemic change.

The three broad categories for applications include:

• Prevention – Providing: communication/information; safe spaces; programmes that focus on counselling, positive parenting, skills development and economic empowerment, addressing gender norms, and Sexual & Reproductive Health and Rights.

• Response – Providing: trauma counselling; maintenance of shelter services; programmes to improve access to emergency response; support and capacity-building for community caregivers; access to protection services.

• Access to Justice - Provision of non-profit and/or free legal and paralegal support services or support to victims in criminal justice system

Every proposal will undergo a well-documented qualitative assessment to enable a sufficiently transparent and justifiable process. The Fund will determine the exact amount awarded to successful applicants based on a variety of factors, including the quality of the application, track record and finance history.

All applications submitted before the deadline will be considered and all applications submitted after the official closing date will not be considered. All applications will undergo initial screening and vetting and, if shortlisted, will be forwarded to an independent Selection and Evaluation Panel who will make all final decisions on Solidarity Fund funding.

“The aim of this intervention is to offer much-needed financial support to organisations providing GBV-related services. This will enable them to continue operating and/or improve their service offering, thereby ensuring the continued availability of critical services that are impactful in preventing abuse, providing support, and ensuring access to justice against perpetrators of abuse. It will further aid in the retention of skills and continued employment of predominantly female staff in organisations at risk of closure,” says Wendy Tlou, Executive Head of the Humanitarian and Behaviour Change pillars at the Fund.
