

The Inyoni Creek Food Festival took place on August 26. Stalls, family fun, a fun run for children and plenty to keep the bellies full was the order of the day at the Rand Aid-run retirement village. Leon Kadish and "Farmer Brown" sold fresh vegetables and colourful plants. Inyoni residents made life-sized scarecrows as decor for the event. The judges awarded Val Blom's Belly Dancer the most creative. The scariest was awarded to Robin McKay's creation, the Witch and Pam Hadden's Flower Power was awarded the funniest.

Around 80 participants lined up for the fun run that saw children sprinting, cycling, walking or even being pushed in their prams. Two-year-old Layla Nieuwoudt revs her engine at the start.
