Dear Cheyenne

I trust the you are well. Thank you for the notices of the EIAs.

We are reporting to the DMRE (where these are submitted). We will be conflicted to comment on the same unless the DMRE request our technical input directly. If we comment – it will be DMRE who is the authority here commenting on what they will adjudicate.

I am writing to you so that you do not get surprised when we do not respond. I have noted several of these as well. It is however good to know about the EIA's.

Regards and keep well.

Dear Ms Muthukarapan,

Kindly be informed the intended area of exploration falls within the scope of the Large Pelagic long line operations.

Be advised Tuna long liners who operate in the area, once their fishing gear is deployed their lines are naturally exposed to the sea current conditions and may drift uncontrollable in any direction.

We trust you will keep us informed of daily planned activities.
