GEMSBOK-UPINGTON: Malaria is a dodelike maar voorkombare siekte en kom in dele van Suid-Afrika voor.

Die Suid-Afrikaanse Nasionale Bloeddiens (SANBS) gee erkenning aan Malariaweek in November deur die bloedvoorraad teen malaria te beskerm. Indien iemand malaria het, kan dit, onder andere deur bloedoortappings en besmette naalde oorgedra word.

In 2013 het meer as 'n halfmiljoen volwassenes en kinders wêreldwyd aan malaria gesterf en vandag woon 1.2 biljoen mense in gebiede waar die risiko hoog is. Hierdie is gewoonlik tropiese gebiede met swaar reënval, humiditeit en hoë temperature waar muskiete wat die siekte versprei kan gedy.

In Suid-Afrika is die situasie minder ernstig - slegs 10% van die bevolking leef in hoë-risiko gebiede soos Limpopo, Mpumalanga en KwaZulu-Natal. Boonop is die verspreiding van malaria seisoenaal. Statistiek van die Wêreld- gesondheidsorganisasie (WGO) wys dat 104 van die 8 645 bevestigde malaria-gevalle in 2013 gesterf het.

Die doeltreffendste manier om te verhoed dat malaria opgedoen word, is om blootstelling aan malaria-draende muskiete te beheer en te beperk deur die gebruik van muskiet-nette en die toepaslike insekdoders.

“Voorkoming verminder malaria wêreldwyd maar Afrika is steeds die plek waar die meeste

sterftes voorkom. Daarom is daar 'n geleentheid om opvoeding en bewusmaking oor die epidemie te verbeter en beter maniere te vind wat die verspreiding kan beperk,” sê Thapelo Mokoena, die SANBS se hoof-bemarkingamptenaar.

Mense wat die grootste kans vir infeksie het, is jong kinders met onderontwikkelde immuunstelsel, mense met HIV en swangervroue.

Volgens Mokoena manifesteer malaria infeksies nie onmiddellik na blootstelling in alle pasiënte nie en simptome in 'n skenker mag voorkom nadat bloed reeds geskenk is. Daarom is die bloeddiens se uitdaging dat mense wat malaria gebiede besoek, vier weke na hulle terugkeer, moet wag voordat hulle weer kan bloed skenk.

Die SANBS onderneem uitgebreide laboratorium prosedures as deel van 'n geïntegreerde proses om elke eenheid bloed te toets vir infeksies wat algemeen in Suid-Afrika voorkom soos HIV, Hepatitis B en C en sifilis. Om te voorkom dat malaria besmette bloed na pasiënte oorgetap word, onderneem die SANBS omvattende onderhoude om inligting van skenkers te verkry en om hulle aan te moedig om malaria-vry te bly.

Die SANBS mik om 3 000 eenhede bloed in te samel in 8 provinsies van Suid-Afrika by skenkersentrums en mobiele klinieke.

Mokoena sê dat as gevolg van die nood aan lewensreddende bloedoortappings in Suid-Afrika, sal geen toegewings rakende voorkomingsmaatreëls wat die SANBS maak, om die beskikbaarheid van genoegsame veilige bloed, geduld word nie.

“Ons het groot waardering vir die skenkers wat onbaatsugtig die geskenk van lewe, aan pasiënte gee. Die diens moedig almal wat bloed skenk aan om alle vrae in die skenkervraelys eerlik te beantwoord.

“Die SANBS moedig mense aan wat vrae of bekommernisse oor bloedskenking het, om hulle naaste bloedskenksentrum te besoek. Die publiek kan ook die tolvrye hulplyn (0800 11 9031) skakel of met die SANBS se sosiale media in verbinding te tree. Dis hoe ons almal 'n deurslaggewende rol in die lewensreddende bloeddiens kan speel,” het Mokoena gesê.

Skenk asseblief bloed en besoek die Upington Bloedskenksentrum by Dr. Nelson Mandela Rylaan Maandag-Vrydae 09:00-17:00 en Woensdae 10:00 – 19:00 vir u volgende bloedskenking.

Kriteira is die volgende: Tussen 16 en 65 jaar oud wees, meer as 50kg weeg, gesond is, iets geëet het 2-4 ure voor skenking en 'n veilige seksuele leefstyl handhaaf. U bloed red lewens. Vir navrae kontak Hendrieka Beukes ((054) 331 1247.

Provincial Speaker's Forum hosted by the NC Legislature

GEMSBOK-UPINGTON: The Northern Cape Provincial Legislature recently held a Provincial Speaker's Forum in Upington.

The purpose of this forum is primarily to enhance and promote the doctrine of separation of powers between the Legislature, Executive and Municipalities in the Northern Cape; as well as to promote public participation and public education of Legislative processes and strengthening oversight at municipal level.

This Forum allows Speakers and Mayors, as public representatives to contribute towards a government that is democratic, accountable and is always of service to the people.

To ensure that our people receive quality government services that directly improve their quality of life, particularly the poor and marginalised in our communities. The Speakers forum also creates one depository for legislative work in the province and attempts to avoid duplications wherever they exist.

As the Legislature we have also committed to rotate our house sittings in order to bring our legislature closer to our people, over and above the regional offices situated in all major towns of our five regions.

Amongst the discussions from the session, was the envisaged MOU between the Legislature with District and Local Municipalities which intends to promote cooperation, and sharing of best practices.

This MOU is expected to be signed in the next Provincial Speaker's Forum.

Attending the forum were SALGA deputy chairperson, Councillor Winnie Ngobeza, and Speaker's and Mayors from respective municipalities in the Northern Cape.

The newly elected Speaker of the ZF Mgcawu district municipality, Patricia Witbooi expressed appreciation for the shared experiences particularly with regards to public participation and stated that this is an area where she intends to improve on in her district.

UPINGTON EXPO: 28-30 APRIL

Blink ogies en taai hande

“Ons is bevoorreg om elke jaar ‘n skou te hê en ek dink ons moet hierdie voorreg geniet.”

Ek Praat Prontuit

Deur Mérie Scheepers

GEMSBOK-UPINGTON: Vandat ons – toe ek in standerd een was – op Worcester aan die onderpunt van Kerkstraat naby die skougronde gewoon het, is ek betower deur alles wat ek gedink het by die skou gebeur.

Ons het nooit skou toe gegaan nie, want my ouers het nie na plekke gegaan waar daar baie mense vergader het nie. Nie strande nie, nie openbare swembaddens of sirkusse en nie skoue nie.

Rond-om die skougronde op Worcester, was daar ‘n sinkheining waardeur niemand kon sien nie. Die bome langs die heining was nog te klein om te klim sodat ‘n mens behoorlik kon sien.

Ek het op die sygaardjie met my voete in die leivoor gesit en gesien hoe mense skougronde toe ry, gesien hoe opgewonde die kinders is. Daar moes iets wonderliks agter daardie sinkplaatheining gebeur het, want ‘n mens kon die mense wat bevoorreg was om deur die hekke te gaan, wie weet waar hoor lag en jil.

Wanneer hulle terugkom, het die kinders spookasem geëet, hulle hare was nie meer plat gekam en hulle kleres silwerskoon nie, maar almal het nog breër geglimlag en hul oë het geblink. By die skool het hulle opgewonde kom vertel van wonderlike dinge waarop hulle gery het, wat hulle gesien het en die perdekinders het kom spog met hul rosette.

Ek onthou dit alles nou nog en ek weet ek het iets wonderlik misgeloop.

Moet tog nie een van daardie ouers wees wat nie hulle kinders skou toe neem nie. Sal die reuk van sosaties wat braai en die stem van die aankondiger hulle nie vir altyd bybly nie? Dink jy nie dat so ‘n gesinsuitstapppie waar hulle hul maats raakloop en saam kan kuier terwyl die grootmense ook lekker sit en gesels, sal herinneringe kweek wat hulle vir altyd sal koester nie?

Of gaan jy en jou kinders ook eendag wonder wat het hulle alles misgeloop?

Een keer ‘n jaar is die skou op Upington. Mense van die hele distrik merk dit op hul almanakke en sorg dat hulle daar is. Ons is bevoorreg om elke jaar ‘n skou te hê en ek dink ons moet hierdie voorreg geniet. Al die taai handjies, blink ogies, moeë voete word in jou geheue geëts tot jy dit eendag weer uitgrawe en afstof.

Dit wil sê; as jou kinders nie ook vir die res van hulle lewe sal wonder wat agter die heining by die skougronde gebeur het nie.

Emile Minnie by die Kalahari Oranje Museum

GEMSBOK-UPINGTON: Sy stem is ryk; sy klavierspel is fenominaal. Suid-Afrikaanse ster van die kabaretverhoog, Emile Minnie, nooi jou na ‘n uur van topgehalte vermaak.
