

APPENDIX C: PHOTOGRAPHS: BARKLY EAST WASTE DISPOSAL FACILITY

Google Earth satellite image of the Barkly East Waste Facility and its site elements and photograph viewpoints

Picture	Description
 2015-08-27	Looking north Site entrance and guardhouse. Note the weighbridge. Site entrance will be relocated to directly behind the weighpad. Photograph taken near Position 1.
 2015-08-27	Looking south-east. Signage at site entrance. Photograph taken near Position 1.
 2015-08-27	Looking east. Site notice at entrance. Photograph taken near Position 1.
 2015-08-27	Looking south-east. Site fence. People have been burying animal carcasses in this area of the landfill after hours. Photograph taken near Position 3.

Looking south-east.
Active landfill cell.
Photograph taken between Positions 3 and 4.

Looking west.
Defunct incinerator cage (future recycling area) in the distance.
Photograph taken near Position 3.

Looking south-west.
New unlined trench.
In the distance beyond
the fence is the old landfill area.
Photograph taken
between Positions 2 and 3.

Looking north.
Old trench
Photograph taken between Positions 2 and 3.

Looking east.

Note the watercourse in the distance beyond the fence. Old landfill trenches to the left.

Photograph taken between Positions 2 and 3.

Looking south.

Defunct incinerator cage. The incinerator is earmarked for demolition, while the cage will be retained and used as a recyclables cage.

Weighpad equipment on the site.

Weighpad equipment on the site.