NOTIFICATION OF THE INTENTION TO DECLARE THE BROSTER BEADWORK COLLECTION AS A SPECIFICALLY DECLARED COLLECTION, IN TERMS OF SECTION 32 OF THE NATIONAL HERITAGE RESOURCES ACT, NO. 25 OF 1999

This notice serves as an announcement of the intention of the South African Heritage Resources Agency (SAHRA) to declare the Walter Sisulu University Collection, in terms of Section 32 of the National Heritage Resources Act, No. 25 of 1999 (NHRA), as a specifically declared collection.

STATEMENT OF SIGNIFICANCE

The Joan Broster Beadwork collection at the Walter Sisulu University is a nationally significant beadwork collection, which dates back to 1932, and was collected between 1952 and 1966. Most of the beadwork are associated with the abaThembu and were collected from Qebe in Engcobo, Eastern Cape. The beadwork collection form part of the remaining collection depicting the cultural history of the Qebe community and a beadwork tradition. The collection is made up of about 3 000 objects which were used for ritualistic and symbolic significance and personal adornment.

In terms of section 32 of the NHRA:

- (S13) No person may destroy, damage, disfigure or alter any heritage object, or disperse any collection which is Specifically Declared without a permit issued by SAHRA;
- (S15) It is the responsibility of the owner or custodian of a Specifically Declared Heritage Object/Collection to keep the Heritage Object/Collection in good condition and in a secure place;
- (S16) The owner or custodian of a heritage object/collection that is Specifically Declared must immediately report to SAHRA any loss of or damage to such a heritage object or any part thereof upon discovery of such loss or damage;
- (S17) No person may carry out any work of restoration or repair of a Specifically Declared heritage object, without a permit issued by a duly authorised representative of SAHRA;
- (S18) On application by the owner or custodian of a Specifically Declared Heritage Object/Collection, SAHRA may at its discretion assist in funding any restoration or repair work undertaken by a conservator approved by SAHRA;
- (S19) No person may export or attempt to export from South Africa any Heritage Object without a permit issued by SAHRA;
- (S20) No heritage object may be removed from South Africa other than through a customs port of entry, and the relevant export permit issued under subsection (19) must be produced to a customs officer before removal from South Africa is effected or allowed.

You are hereby given 60 (sixty) calendar days, in terms of Section 32 (5 i,ii,iii) National Heritage Resources Act (No. 25 of 1999), to make written submissions to: The South African Heritage Resources Agency should you wish to comment on the proposed declaration. Please make written submission to the following postal address: SAHRA, P.O. Box 4637, Cape Town 8001. Alternatively you may submit via email to the following mail addresses: hweldon@sahra.org.za; nngcai@sahra.org.za; or risaacs@sahra.org.za or via fax 021 462 4509.
