Cadastral boundaries are compiled from information supplied by the Chief Surveyor-General, Department: Rural Development & Land Reform.
 Copyright remains vested in the State.
 Planet GIS provides the data in a user friendly format and with some clean-up processing (e.g. removal of duplicate and historical features). Planet GIS does not create or modify any boundaries. Each coordinate is within 1cm of the coordinates supplied by the Surveyor General.
IMPORTANT: Do not rely on the cadastral boundaries for important calculations or designs! Inaccuracies and omissions are often discovered. Always consult a land surveyor to determine the correct locations of each coordinate.
 The Chief Surveyor-General's DISCLAIMER:
 While the Department of Rural Development and Land Reform strives to keep and provide accurate cadastral and spatial information as possible, the department makes no claims, promises, or guarantees about the accuracy, completeness, or adequacy of the contents, and expressly disclaims all and any liability for errors and omissions in the contents thereof.
