Hier is Johan in aksie tydens een van sy wedrenne.

Jong wedrenjaer laat die tjorre lekker knor

'n Jong wedrenentoesias van Dalview hoop om nog hoër hoogtes in die toekoms te bereik.

Die gogga om knortjor (go-kart) te ry het vir Johan Nolte (8) sowat 'n jaar gelede geby, en hy is vinnig besig om naam vir homself te maak.

Volgens sy ma, Elmarie, is die liefde vir spoed en wedrenne in haar spruit se bloed.

Johan het trots vertel dat sy oupa, Johan Nolte, Formula M gery het en dat sy pa, Byron Nolte, Formula Fort KENT gery het.

“Wanneer ek aan wedrenne dink is een van my grootste oomblikke tot dusver toe ek by ‘regionals’ se derde rondte 'n vierde plek behaal het.

“Dit is ook lekker om beter te vaar as kinders wat al vir meer as drie en vier jaar aan wedrenne deelneem.”

Johan het verduidelik dat hierdie jaar vir hom 'n leerproses is.

“Ek wil net eers my voete vind in die resies-wêreld. Ek werk baie hard om volgende jaar die kampioenskap te vat en oorse te gaan.

“Elke jaar is daar 'n Afrika-ope. Dit is 'n groot sportbyeenkoms in Suid-Afrika, waar daar baie oorse ryers is.

“Dit word die jaar

op Zwartkops op 7 en 8 Augustus gehou,” verduidelik die geesdriftige jong jaer.

“Ek oefen ten minste drie keer 'n week op die baan, die res van die dae oefen ek op die simulator by die huis.

“My grootse uitdaging is om seker te maak my enjin is altyd die vinnigste. Maar daar is altyd iemand slimmer en better as jy.

“My rolmodel is my pa.

Ek kyk op na my pa. Hy gee my altyd goeie raad. My pa het altyd onder die top drie geëindig en dis waarvoor ek werk, ek wil in sy skoene volg,” het Johan gesê.

Elmarie het vertel: “Vir ons as ouers is dit ongelooflik om te sien hoe ons seun presteer. Hy verbeter met elke wedren en gee nooit op nie.

“Op wedrenndag is sy pa heeldag gefokus en die senuwees loop hoog. As ma's is ons 10 keer erger as 'n rugbyspeler se ma.

“Sy pa staan altyd by die wegtrekstreep en ons

Johan Nolte is nie net die jongste tussen die ander deelnemers nie, maar ook die kleinste.

Safety a top priority for Sars

In terms of the Disaster Management Act, Sars remains an essential service.

With the rising case numbers and the onset of the third wave peak of the pandemic, however, Sars has decided to close its tax branches temporarily for physical visits as from July 1.

They are able to do so because the Sars digital platforms, as demonstrated during the peak of the second wave, allows taxpayers to continue to fulfil their obligations online.

Importantly, the temporary closure of the tax branches will not affect the start of the filing season for individuals who traditionally file via eFiling or the Sars MobiApp.

These taxpayers are encouraged to continue doing so digitally, starting from July 1.

Branch filing will not commence on July 1.

At this stage, Sars plans to commence physical branch visits on August 16 but will review this continuously.

Taxpayers are advised not to visit a Sars branch.

The branches will be closed until an announcement is made confirming the re-opening date.

During the branch closures, taxpayers who require assistance to file online will be assisted telephonically with the support of dedicated Sars staff. All customs ports of entry will be open for frontline customs operations, but not for face-to-face client engagement other than for clearance and inspection purposes.

In line with the stated commitment to modernise its systems and make it easy for taxpayers to meet their tax obligations, Sars will continue its commitment to using technology to ensure continued service to taxpayers in a manner that ensures both the safety of its employees as well as taxpayers.

Members of the public are advised to note the following:

- Bookings for virtual appointments may be made via the Sars website by following this link: <https://www.sars.gov.za/contact-us/make-an-appointment/> and sending an SMS to 47277 with the word “Booking” and your passport/ID number/ asylum permit number and a Sars agent will contact you to arrange a booking on your behalf.

- Taxpayers can use digital platforms by visiting www.sars.gov.za

- The Sars Contact Centre (0800 00 7277) will continue to service any queries from members of the public.

Sars will continue to monitor the evolving pandemic and keep all South African taxpayers informed of any changes to these arrangements.
