1. APPENDIX 3: PPP

1.1 Appendix 3A: Details of the Public Participation process followed

The Public Participation Process mainly comprises the engagement with Interested and Affected Parties (I&APs) and is of utmost importance in any assessment process. The PPP, inter alia, involves the following:

- a. Inform, raise awareness and increase understanding of environmental issues or any other issues that might be affected by the mining process.
- b. Establish lines of communication between stakeholders, I&APs and the project team.
- c. Provide opportunity to all parties for the exchange of information and expression of views and concerns.
- d. Obtain contributions of stakeholders and I&AP and ensure that all views, issues, concerns and queries are documented.
- e. Identify the significant issues associated with the proposed project.

Mokone Bakgaga Consulting (Pty) Ltd was appointed by Lethabo Supermarket Cc as the consultant to handle the prospecting right application, including PPP. As stipulated in terms of Section 22(4) (b) of the Mineral And Petroleum Resources Development Act, I&APs need to be notified and consulted with, as part of a prospecting right application (PRA).

Identification of I&APs

The first phase of the PPP includes the identification of I&APs. Initial identification of stakeholders took place at the beginning of the PRA; they included the landowners and neighbours of the proposed prospecting application properties, local municipality including a local ward councillors as well as the State Departments and/or Organs of State which have jurisdiction in the area.

It is important to note that the identification and notification of potential stakeholders will be an ongoing process throughout the PPP, as more information is gathered and contact with people is established.

Interested and Affected Parties were supplied with notification letter with I&AP registration form attached, this was accompanied by a table of the listed activities. Additional notification of the PRA and invitations to register as I&APs have been also provided through local and the National newspapers: The Citizen and Rustenburg Herald newspapers. Furthermore a consultation meeting with registered I&AP's is considered in the future. Site notices (A3) were fixed on the fence of the application and adjacent properties. Attached please see a sample of the notices placed.

1.1.1. Site notice fixed
