

Condition Report

Identification

Object Diictodon
 Catalog Number SAM-PK-K10643
 Accession Number _____
 Person Reporting Karen Merton
 Storage Location Discovering Life Hall
 Date September 11, 2020

Description

Physical Description (Color; Construction; Materials; Size - LxWxH Inches/Cm):

Half-prepped fossil still in field jacket

Condition (Check appropriate boxes)

	Minor	Moderate	Major	Extreme
Biological
Dry Rot
Insect Damage
Mold
Chemical Faded
Odorous
Oxidized
Red Rot
Stained

	Minor	Moderate	Major	Extreme
Physical
Bent/Crushed
Brittle
Broken
Burned
Cracked
Chipped
Creases
Dirty
Dry
Dusty
Fraying
Greasy
Loose Parts
Missing Parts
Paint Flaking
Scratched
Shrinkage
Smoke Damage
Torn/Holes
Warped
Water Damage
Weakness
Other

Photos attached

Degree of Damage Definitions

Minor - Damage or existing condition is comparatively unimportant in size or degree.

Moderate - Damage is of middle or increasing severity or size, quite noticeable and covering a large area.

Major - Damage or existing conditions are very notable and conspicuous, requires immediate attention.

Extreme - Damage exceeds the ordinary or expected extent.

Condition Report

Structural Damage:

Areas of Insecurity or Weakness:

Previous Alterations or Repairs:

Specimen prepped and stabilized prior to loan

Treatments Needed (Check all that apply)

<input type="checkbox"/> Dust with Brush/Cloth	<input type="checkbox"/> Minor Mending/Repairs
<input type="checkbox"/> Vacuum with Screen	<input type="checkbox"/> Reinforce/Support
<input type="checkbox"/> Damp Wipe	<input type="checkbox"/> Fumigation
<input type="checkbox"/> Damp Wipe with Detergent	<input type="checkbox"/> Major Repairs
<input type="checkbox"/> Removal	<input type="checkbox"/> Other _____

Action Taken (date/initial):

None

Restrictions and Special Handling:

Additional Comments:

General Condition Summary (Check all that apply)

Excellent Good Poor

Stable Unstable

General Condition Definitions

Excellent - Object appears to be as new, in sound condition and requires no attention.

Good - Object appears almost like new, shows normal wear, minimal dirt and grime.

Poor - Object appears quite worn, damaged and requires considerable repair, disfigured or missing pieces.

Stable - Damaged but can remain in current condition until treated.

insecure - in the process of active deterioration.