

This house is directly opposite the applicants house. This house is on the right hand side of the entrance to Burnside place.

From the entrance to Burnside place, looking down the road this house can be seen.

In this photo the neighbour at 2 Burnside place house can be seen clear than from the front. It is clear that this is a double story house.

In this photo the neighbour directly behind number 2 is also double story.

This photo is a better look at the house down the road from the entrance to Burnside place, behind it you can see their neighbour also has a double story house.
