

Khubvi Pictures

The pictures below show the T-off point from the existing Medium Voltage power line. They also show different pole positions indicated by the white/red & white danger tape on various areas of the village within the proximity of households that must be electrified.

