THE streets of Melville will be oozing with music lovers on 28 June on 7th Street at the 2014 Fête de la Musique festival.

7th Street will be turned into a pedestrian-friendly zone for music lovers to truly enjoy the live music performances within restaurants and bars and on various stages.

The festival began in France in 1982 on what was said to be the longest day of the year. It usually takes place on 21 June, the day of the summer solstice in the northern hemisphere, according to project manager Lauren Ceas.

Since being launched by the French Ministry for Culture, the Fête de la Musique is held in more than 100 countries in Europe and around the world.

Last year, the Fête de la Musique was celebrated by more than 10 000 people and was one of the main events of the French season in South Africa 2012.

Based on last year's success, the event supported by a range of sponsors, promises to offer a wider range of music and other activities in 2014.

Music lovers' festival

"This year we want to try and bring the music and all the fun to the street, we will have stages set up where the artists will perform," said Ceas.

"Thanks to the impulse and the dynamism of the French cultural network abroad, the Fête has seen more than 35 000 people attending to a diversified musical programme in many cities like Johannesburg, Port Elizabeth and Durban in 2013," said Jean Bourdin director of the Alliance Française Johannesburg.

"Everyone is invited to this free Melville music day which will showcase diverse local amateur or professional musicians and international music, celebrated in a safe and inclusive atmosphere that brings communities together in a popular and free event," added Ceas.

Andrew Marais from the Melville Resident's Association said he looks forward to the event and thanked the Melville Business Association and the 7th Street business owners and Melville residents for supporting this event.

'F' will tickle your funny bone

GET ready to fall over laughing. The F Word, a series of various comedy shows starring local talent, is set to hit the stage at the People of Performing Art Centre in Johannesburg starting on 26 June. This laugh-a-minute event is billed as the National Arts Festival's 'unofficial' preview show.

Linden's Deep Fried Man, Auckland Park's Robbie Collins, Eureka Nkese from Melville and Fairland's own Jason Goliath will be starring in various shows. Festivities kick off with Starship Improvise hosted by Chris Forrest and featuring Ryan Whittal, Vittorio Leonardi and Richelleu Benoir in a battle of improvisation. No comedian has gone here before, the event flyer warns intriguingly. On 27 June Whose Your Daddy (hosted by Chris Forrest) and Funnier than Them (starring Chris Forrest, Warren Robertson and Deep Fried Man) share the privilege of tickling your funny bone, and it's time for That Bushmen's Crazy and Stand Up for Comedy on 28 June. Goliath and Goliath finishes off the party on 29 June.

Details: Monica Steyn 082 452 2095.

Celebrating Fietas and Sophiatown

Feldman documented the removal of Fietas on camera when the neighbourhood was demolished in 1971.

The exhibition pays homage to the erstwhile Fietas community and celebrates the legacy of its organised defiance.

This honours the spirit of and highlights the shared history between Fietas and Sophiatown. The exhibition will run until Friday, 18 July. Details: Rinkie 011 673 1271; thmcentre@tmweb.co.za
