Good sir,

- No member of the family is currently employed by Assmang CRW
- Six (6) children of the 89 years old lady are staying in the house
- Since the year 1989 when the old lady decided to come to stay with her late husband Mfuyelwa Mngwengwe
- The late Mfuyelwa Mngwengwe was employed by Assmang CRW, he got injured at work, he was then offered by Assmang management to come and stay nearer to his place of employment since he was staying at Ehlanzeni area. The old lady then came to live with late Mfuyelwa Mngwengwe in the house. Four (4) of their children were born at that place whilst the other four (4) came with the old lady from her home. They were staying together as husband and wife.

- Nobody was buried at that plot which are staying at this stage.

Kind Regard

James Sandile Makhathini (Max)

Subject: House on Ptn 26 - questions

Hi Colleagues,

Can you help with some questions re the house on Ptn 26. A recent visit by Max gathered some information about the Ngwengwe family residing there.

- Are any of the household members currently employed by Assmang?
- How many people are living there with the mother (who is 89 yrs of age)?
- Since when, according to them are they staying there?
- How did they get to move in there, is there a bit of history?
- If you did ask, have they buried anybody on the land?

Regards

Werner
