

Actor Bruce joins popular TV show

Bruce Gounder, a renowned actor in the mid-South Coast area and one of the faces behind Boulevard Films International based in Park Rynie, has joined the cast of one of the country's new and popular daily TV shows on SABC 3, The Estate.

The local man became a part of the stellar cast roughly a month ago and has already shot 12 episodes.

"It's an amazing feeling to work on such a powerful set with several A-list South African actors," said Bruce.

"There is a lot of hard work that goes into these shows and there have been times where we've shot about eight scenes a day."

Bruce will be playing, as he describes, a "dark character" whom he hopes the audience of this Clive Morris Productions show will take a liking to.

Prior to his casting on the show,

Bruce and his team at Boulevard Films premiered their first feature film, Fish's Tale, which he believes has opened doors like this for him.

"We've received international recognition for this movie in places such as China, Malaysia, Singapore and even Hollywood," he said.

"With my passion for this industry and the current acting work I'm doing, I can only see myself going to Hollywood in the next few years."

Besides his love for acting, Bruce also enjoys the travelling aspects of his profession, as well as meeting new people and getting advice on how to better himself as an actor.

"I'm not a person that allows fame to get to my head, and I will continue growing myself while remaining humble."

Bruce's episodes of The Estate are expected to air around July.

Walker and Harris annihilate field

After all the excitement of last weekend's club championships at Scottburgh Golf Club, it was back to the bread and butter as a smallish field turned up for an individual Stableford on Wednesday. It was a case of the Tuesday rain continuing into the next day along with the cold wind from the north which put a few off, Flyer included.

If it's not Artha it's Martha and if it's not Dick it's Liddie, it has to be Hans and Tony as Beuthe beat Power with 35 to 34 points. Graham Brown, Jason Gilliver and Mike Hogan recorded 2-clubs and a new name for the upkeep of the Stone appeared as Mikhail van Brakel was welcomed to the Stonies club.

There was a better field on Saturday for the betterball Stableford and for some playing their matchplay knockouts. Darren Walker and Dylan Harris teamed up and annihilated the field with 45 points. Visitors

Terry and Phil Bachus were second, winning the count out on 40 points over Willy Creaney and Graham Brown, Willy scoring his first ever 2 club at Scottburgh, nice chip Willy. Darren managed two 2-clubs with dad Ian also managing one.

Another highlight was the two Petes (Gilliver and Morris) managing to overcome their wives by beating them 38 to 34, one up for the boys. The Stone is being hotly contested of late with Deane Jooste this week giving someone else a chance and Colin Moodie with Mike Hogan had their turn on Saturday.

With the matchplay in full swing the finalists have four weeks in which to complete the tournament.

Flyer's footnote: No matter how badly you are playing, it's always possible to play even worse.
