To SAHRA

The Human Science Department of the KwaZulu-Natal Museum, Pietermaritzburg, supports the application by Professor Nick Conard for the export of two teeth and a tooth fragment from Sibudu Cave to the University of Tübingen, Germany, for non-destructive analysis. We understand that the teeth will be returned to South Africa in February 2018. Please note that the teeth have not yet been formally accessioned as individual items into the collections of the KwaZulu-Natal Museum, although Sibudu has been allocated an accession code.

Gavin Whitelaw
