

UNIVERSITEIT VAN PRETORIA
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA

Faculty of Health Sciences
Department of Anatomy

April 22, 2022

Permission to access the Archaeological Bone Repository to obtain samples for analysis from M1_{dentine}, rib fragment, M1_{enamel}, M2_{enamel}, M3_{enamel}.

Dear Dr L. Mbeki

You are granted permission to obtain samples from our archaeological remains, which is housed in the Department of Anatomy, University of Pretoria for your research entitled “Building life histories of labourers from the South African mineral revolution, 1837-1920”.

You are permitted to obtain sample from the following remains: Koffiefontein individuals that are labelled K1, K2, K6, K7, K8, K9, K 10, K11, K 12, K13, K15, K16, K17, K18, K19, K20, K21, K21, K22, K23, K24 ,K25, K28, K29 ,K30, K31, K32, K35, K36, K37 and K38, and Krugersdorp Lancaster Mine individuals labelled UP 52, UP 53, UP 54, UP 55, UP 56, UP 57, UP 58, UP 59, UP 60, UP 61, UP 62, UP 63, UP 64, UP 66, UP 67, UP 68 and UP 69.

This permission is dependent upon obtaining a SAHRA (South African Heritage Resources Agency) Permit to conduct the destructive study on archaeological remains in accordance with the National Heritage Resources Act of 1999.

With kindest regards,

Gabriele C. Krüger, MSc

First Technical Assistant: Department of Anatomy

Curator: Pretoria Bone Collection