

Photos:
Telecommunication Base Station: Murunwa

Figure 1: View of the site for the proposed base station next to the fence of the Church. The site is surrounded by eucalyptus (Blue gum) trees.

Figure 2: View from the site to the north.

Figure 3: View from the site to the north-east. The site is located next to the premises of a church.

Figure 4: View from the site to the east

Figure 5: View from the site to the south-east and access road.

Figure 6: View from the site to the south

Figure 7: View from the site to south-west

Figure 8: View from the site to the west

Figure 9: View from the site to the north-west.

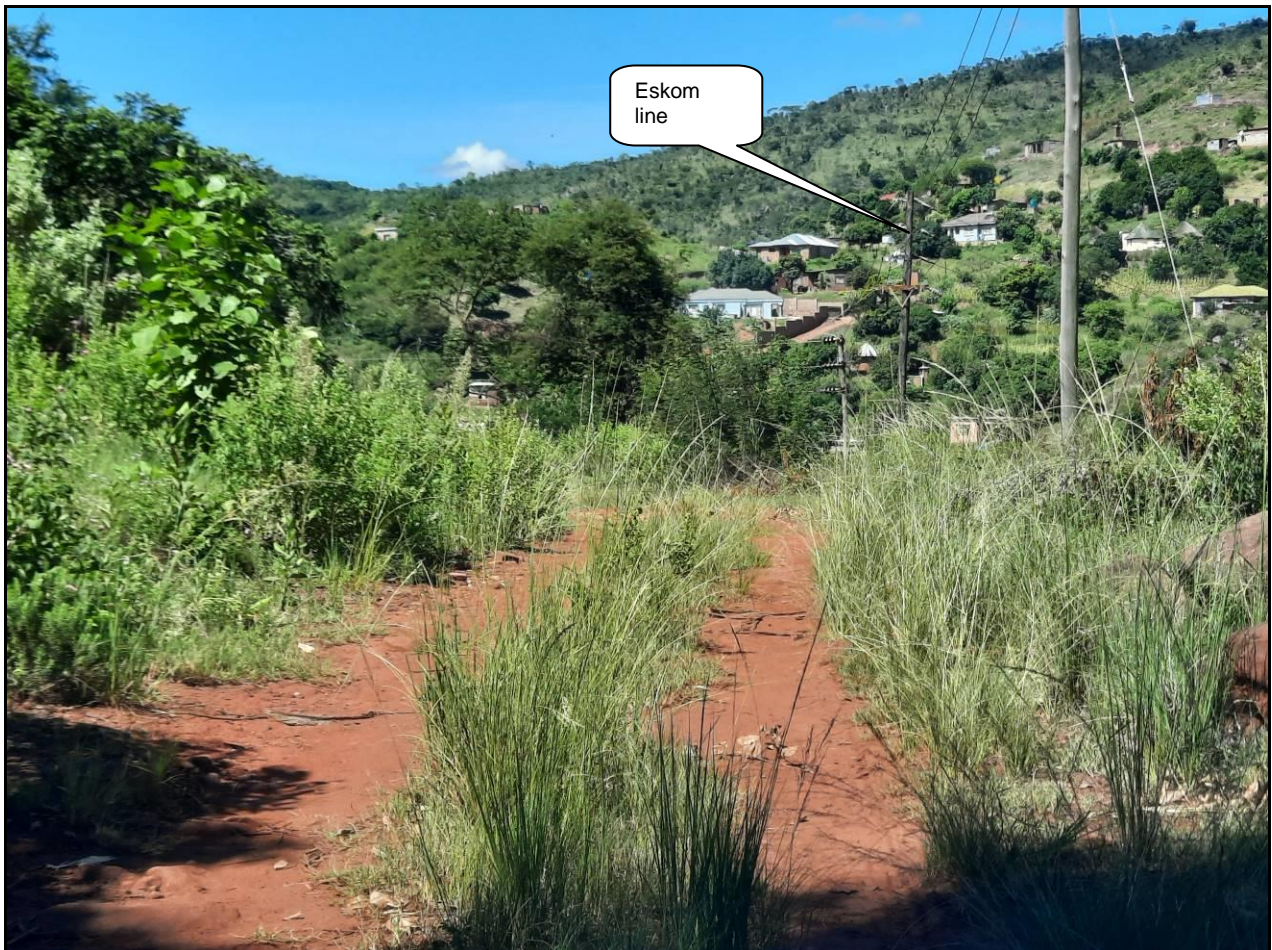

Figure 10: View of access road and power line to the proposed site.