Twee 'ware soldate' begrawe

Elaine Strauss

Twee vriende wat twee weke gelede Saterdag op 'n motorfiets in Colbyn verongeluk het, is albei verlede week ter ruste gelê.

Familie en vriende van Christo Janse van Rensburg het hul laaste eer verlede Donderdagmiddag aan hom betoon by Lofdal kerk in Pretoria-Noord, terwyl Theu Gouws se familie en vriende Vrydagmiddag by die NG Kerk Booysens bymekaar gekom het vir die laaste groet.

> Theu was 'n ware soldier. Die Chosen Soldiers het 'n groot rol in sy lewe gespeel en het baie vir hom beteken.

Albei mans was pa's, wat nie net deur familie en vriende gemis gaan word nie, maar ook deur hul makkers in die onderskeie motorfiets-klubs waaraan hulle behoort het.

Die president van Backbones motorfietsklub, Scruffy Venter, het die bedankings by die diens vir Janse van Rensburg gedoen.

"Hy was 'n droomkind gewees, altyd vol drome. Sy droom om 'n biker te wees is bewaarheid, waaroor ek baie bly is. Ons moet almal uitgaan om ook ons eie drome te bewaarheid," het Venter gesê.

By die diens vir Gouws is 'n skyfievertoning van sy lewe vir die aanwesiges gewys en Michael Oosthuizen het die bedankings gedoen.

"Theu was 'n ware soldier. Die Chosen Soldiers het 'n groot rol in sy lewe gespeel en het baie vir hom beteken," het 'n aangedane Oosthuizen gesê.

Janse van Rensburg se familie dra sy kis.

Janse van Rensburg in in die Heaterdale begrafplaas begrawe waarna almal by die Backbone Pretoria se klubhuis bymekaar gekom het.

Na Gouws se diens is die motorfiets- en motorkonvooi na die Rebeccastraat begraafplaas, waar die kis deur 'n erewag van motorfietse ingewag en begra[illegible] is.
