Rumandi Potgieter does not see length as a prerogative to be competitive as a goal.

A few centimetres do not bother her

Rumandi Potgieter is unofficially one of the war veterans of the UP-Tuks netball team.

One could say she is a real straight shooter who seldom misses her target on and off the court.

The second-year BCom Law student impressed with her energetic performance so far as goal-attack for Tuks in the Varsity tournament.

She has the knack of being at the right place at critical moments, scoring vital goals which are quite remarkable considering that she is only 1.65m tall.

Potgieter does not see length as a prerogative to be competitive as a goal.

"Obviously being tall is an asset when playing at goal. Unfortunately I missed out by quite a few centimetres," she said.

"But in the end, all that matters is to focus doing what is expected of a goal-attack to perfection. I tried playing other positions, but netball for me is playing in the circle. I love the pressure that goes with playing goal-attack. The more it is, the better I tend to play."

Potgieter said communication between her and whoever is playing goal-shooter was of the utmost importance during a game.

"That is why we got only a shooters' practice before a match to get used to playing together in the circle. I got to know what works for the goal-attack and vice versa."

The UP-Tuks games against Pukke and Maties were humdingers.

Pukke won 40-34 while UP-Tuks clinched a victory in the dying moments against Maties, the final score being 48-46.

There was a good chance of UP-Tuks playing against one of either team again in the semi-final.

Potgieter was confident that the result would be different the next time against Pukke.

"We learned a lot playing against them, and we know now what to do and what not to do. Against Maties, it will be substantial not to play catch-up all the time," she said.

"The positive we can take from the game against Maties is the way we refused to give up.

"I think that never-say-die attitude is going to stand us in good stead later on in the Varsity tournament."

Potgieter's tactical savviness was not restricted to shooting goals during netball games.

She was as astute when fighting video war games.

When on holiday, she said she could play for hours on end, strategising how to win on the battlefield or outfoxing her opponents in various sporting encounters.

In addition, Potgieter said she was quite an expert when it came to sleeping.

Mini-krieketfees lok honderde

Meer as 300 jong krieketgeesdriftige laerskoolkinders was verlede week deel van Laerskool Tuinrand se Mini-Krieket dag.

Koos Venter

Dertien laerskole van oor die hele Pretoria het verlede week aan Laerskool Tuinrand se mini-krieket-toernooi deelgeneem.

Die toernooi is om logistieke redes op die terrein van die Tuine Sportklub aangebied.

Dit was 'n miernes van bedrywighede toe meer as 300 jong spelertjies saam met hul afrigters en ondersteuners vir die aksie opdaag.

Skole van so ver as die hoewegebied sowat 25km noord van Pretoria (Laerskool Uniefees) en die landelike gebied tussen Pretoria en Brits (Laerskool Vissershoek) was deel van die aksie.

Mini-krieket is 'n formaat van die spel wat met die hulp van die restaurantgroep Kentucky Fried Chicken landwyd aangebied word.

Dit is ontwerp om jong kinders, seuns én meisies, op 'n eenvoudige intreevlak aan die spel bloot te stel.

Elke span bestaan uit agt spelers en elke speler moet 'n kans kry om aktief aan alle aspekte van die spel deel te neem.

So word voorkom dat die spel onder kinders gedomineer word deur uitblinkers, terwyl almal 'n liefde vir krieket ontwikkel.

Nog 'n doelwit van die model is om so veel as moontlik kinders betrokke te kry om daarmee 'n aktiewe leefstyl onder almal te bevorder.

Seuns en meisies speel saam in gemengde spanne op verkleinde krieketvelde. Sowat agt velde kan uitgelê word op 'n rugbyveld.

Die spel word met verkleinde kolwe van sintetiese materiaal en met sagte balle gespeel.

Ten spyte daarvan dat die meeste van die spelertjies nog leer hoe om die spel baas te raak, is hulle met oorgawe deur vriende en familie aangemoedig om hul allerbeste te lewer.

Goed gedissiplineerde jong krieketspelertjies sit (onder) geduldig en wag vir die aksie om te begin tydens die amptelike opening by die Tuinrand mini-krieket-dag. Links wys Leruske Coetzer van Laerskool Boerefort dat sy weet hoe kom 'n krieketkolf te swaai en die grenshou in te ryg.
