Impala Rustenburg rollouts vaccinations to workers

Impala Rustenburg has completed the first dose vaccination of more than 1 000 employees who are over 60 years of age and the first 800 of its employees who fall into the next 50 to 59 year age category as part of the government's Covid-19 vaccination rollout. Impala Rustenburg also vaccinated more than 820 of its healthcare workers in the first vaccination phase. Mark Munroe, Chief Executive of Impala Rustenburg, said the total number of people vaccinated at Impala Rustenburg now exceeds 4 000 and the vaccination programme is rapidly gaining momentum. Dr Jon Andrews, Implats' Group Executive for Health and Safety Executive, who has led the Group's medical response to the pandemic, said they were proud and privileged to have been able to assist the North West Department of Health with their vaccination programme since the start of the government rollout. For more information about registering for the vaccination,
