Social Consultation:

Olifantsfontein 402JR – Strawberry Farm

Site notices were erected at the grave site and on fences nearby the grave site next to public roads. The notices were erected in the first week of September 2018, more than 1 year ago.

Notices were placed in 3 newspapers and appeared on the following dates:

Daily Sun - 20.09.2018

Sowetan - 21.09.2018

City Press - 23.09.2018.

Since the notices were erected and the newspaper notices were published, no response was received from anyone.

On Sunday 18 November 2018 we drove in the area and attempted to question anyone walking around whether they may know anything about the said graves, but the five people we questioned in the area did not know anything about the graves or the next-of-kin.

This is as far as we could go until now, but nothing positive was obtained as far as tracing of the next-of-kin of the people buried there.

There were no responses on any of the notices up to date.

Kind Regards,
