FORM DA 103 SPECIAL LICENSES TO EXPLORE OR SEARCH FOR ABANDONED WRECKS LICENSE NO. 2/2014 FOR 2014

Permission for exploration, or to search for abandoned wrecks along the coast of the Republic of South Africa and to take possession of articles recovered there from is hereby granted to:

Full Name : MR. CORNELIS FRANK UYS

Physical Address : 14 TURN BERRY CLOSE, STRAND, 4144

subject to the rights of others, including any person to whom a license similar to this license may have been granted, or may hereafter be granted and subject to the following conditions:

1. The licensee shall keep a register which shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by an office of the South African Revenue Service, or any other person authorised by the Commissioner for SARS (Hereinafter referred to as the Commissioner) specifying all articles or goods whatsoever, nothing expected, recovered/salvaged by the licensee, the date of the value of such articles or goods and to whom for what amount the articles or goods was sold or disposed of for.
2. The licensee shall within seven days of the date of recovery of any article or thing, furnish the Controller of Customs who issued this license with full particulars of such articles, or goods and shall remove the same place to a place of security approved by the said Controller unless authorised to disposal of the goods in some manner.
3. The licensee shall keep any safe, chest or other receptacle which may be recovered unopened until the said Controller of Customs has been advised of the recovery and such Controller or delegated officer's authorise the opening thereof under Customs supervision for the purposes of compiling a list of everything contained in the safe, chest or receptacle.

4. The licensee shall pay to the State at the said Controller of Customs a royalty of 15% of the value of all article or goods recovered.
5. The licensee shall pay on demand to the said Controller of Customs, (In addition to the 15% royalty mentioned in paragraph 4) all duties liable in terms of the Customs act on any wreckage, articles or goods as well as expenses incurred by the SARS in connection with whatever supervision of any operations the Controller may deem necessary for the protection of the revenue.
6. The duties and royalty shall, on any articles recovered, by assessed on either:
 - (a) the value of the articles as ascertained by a sworn appraisalment or;
 - (b) if the article is sold by the licensee, on the sale price according to the decision of the said controller; or
 - (c) the rated duty if liable to the rated duty.
7. The licensee shall notify the said Controller of Customs in writing of all wrecks discovered, or located, within seven days of such discovery or location, and shall keep a register which shall specify the names and contents of the wreck as far as known, and their position or locality. Such register shall be open at all times for inspection by Officer(s) delegated by the said Controller.
8. If any work or recovery is conducted on, or from the sea-shore as defined in the Sea Shore Act, Act No. 21 of 1935 (as amended), suck work shall be subjected to the provisions of the said Act, and the Regulations promulgated there under.
9. This license is valid from 1 JANUARY 2014 to 31 DECEMBER 2014, but may be renewed on application at the discretion of the Controller who issued the original license. Application for renewal must be made prior to this license becoming time expired.
10. Should the licensee:
 - (a) fail to commence work within three months from date on which the license was issued;
 - (b) cease operations;
 - (c) fail to carry on operations to the satisfaction of the Controller; or
 - (d) fail in anyway to comply with the afore-mentioned conditions,

The license issued, by the said Controller may be revoked and the licensee informed accordingly.

11. This license is issued with the understanding that any wreck discovered would be considered to the best of your knowledge and to the understanding of SARS to be 'abandoned wreck'.

SIGNED AT CUSTOMS MOSSEL BAY ON THIS 12TH OF NOVEMBER

A handwritten signature in black ink, enclosed within a circular scribble. The signature is stylized and difficult to decipher, but appears to consist of several loops and a long horizontal stroke.
